

GS Medical College Senior Faculty attends UP Health Tech Conclave 1.0, Lucknow 19–20 January 2026

Dr. Sarandeep Singh Puri, Dean Student Welfare, and Prof & Head, Department of Pathology, GS Medical College and Hospital, and Dr. Shipra Kuashik, Professor, Department of Pharmacology, GS Medical College and Hospital, attended the UP-Health Tech Conclave 1.0 held on 19–20 January 2026 at Clark’s Awadh, Lucknow. The conclave focused on strengthening healthcare innovation in Uttar Pradesh through indigenous medical devices, digital health, AI-enabled care, and startup–academia collaboration. A key highlight was the launch of UP-IMRAS, a single-window digital platform to facilitate medical research, clinical trials, and regulatory approvals. The event reinforced the important role of academic institutions in clinical validation and translational healthcare innovation.
