CIRCULAR

Undertaking Regarding Non-Involvement in Unlawful or Anti-National Activities

This is to inform all members of the university community—including teaching faculty, non-teaching staff, and students across all departments—that in compliance with Govt. of Uttar Pradesh code of conduct guidelines for universities, GS university shall be taking an undertaking from all its staff and students.

Vide this, each employee and student is required to execute a formal undertaking affirming their non-involvement in any unlawful, subversive, or anti-national activities/act. This is to ensure a safe, peaceful, and constructive academic environment in the university that upholds national integrity and harmony.

Action Required:

- 1. For Staff (Teaching & Non-Teaching): Please download the designated "Form A: Staff Undertaking" from the university portal or collect it from the HR Office, Second Floor, GS Hospital. Please complete the form and submit it to the HR Office.
- 2. For Students: "Form B: Student Undertaking" may please be obtained, completed and submitted to the office of respective Head of Department (HOD).
- 3. Submission: The completely filled, signed, and witnessed undertaking must be submitted physically to the designated desks on or before Saturday, May 23, 2026.

Please Note:

The task is most immediate. Your cooperation is essential. Failure to submit the undertaking by the stipulated date may result in strict administrative action, including withholding of monthly salary for the staff and temporary suspension for students.
